www.CamarilloMarathon.com

1. I don't know the course can I just follow someone?

It is the athlete's responsibility to know the entire race course BEFORE stepping onto the starting line. Checkout www.CamarilloMarathon.com for all the info. There are interactive maps on the website.

2. How will I know when to turn if I am doing the Full, half or 5k ? – see below

Full Marathon: follow the red arrow signs that look like the one to your left. You will see one at the corner of Cawelti / Lewis rd and Lewis rd/ Laguna, DO NOT just follow the person in front of you they might be doing the half marathon. If you have a RED RACE BIB NUMBER follow the red arrows and the 16 foot red flags.

Half Marathon: you will see a sign that looks like the one to your left. At the corner of Cawelti / Lewis rd and Lewis rd/ Laguna. DO NOT just follow the person in front of you, they might be doing the full marathon. If you have a GREEN RACE BIB NUMBER follow the green arrows, and the green 16 foot flags.

5k run course: your course will be all on the airport property and your race bib numbers will be black.

3. Do I have to stop at each signal light?

No, all signals will be on red flashing and we will have police coverage at each intersection location. BUT please be cautious and mindful just in case you encounter a wayward car. Let the car win!

4. Any special instructions?

At 5th street, an active working railroad track and you might encounter a train coming by on race day. If you do have to wait for a train to pass we will have race personnel on hand to take your number down and credit you for the time you had to wait. In the unlikely event that this happens you are looking about maybe 30 seconds
